Greetings from the FAEIS team at Virginia Tech. If you are not familiar with this important project from USDA/CSREES, click here to read about FAEIS and why it is important to you.

For the November newsletter we focus on trends in U.S. citizenship of Agriculture faculty (see below).

College Enrollment Survey

We begin the FAEIS annual surveys with a request for the TOTAL fall 2008 enrollment for your college. If you have not already returned this brief survey, send your reply to faeis@vt.edu. Please send us your:

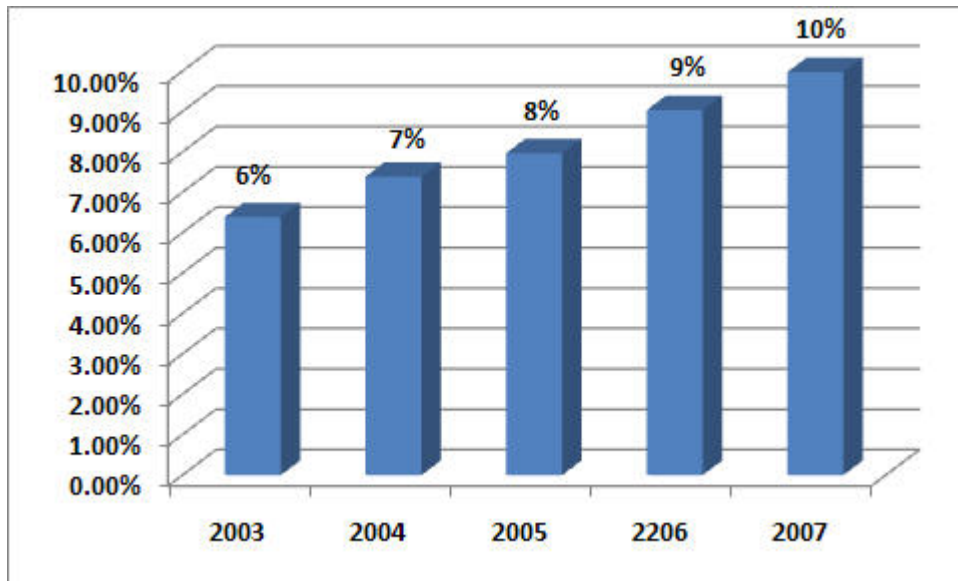

- TOTAL college enrollment (fall 2008)
- Undergraduate enrollment
- Graduate enrollment
- Associates enrollment
- Programs added and dropped for 2008/2009

To check on the status of FAEIS 2008 surveys for your college, see the 2008 Survey Status Report.

Citizenship of Agriculture Faculty and PhD Graduates

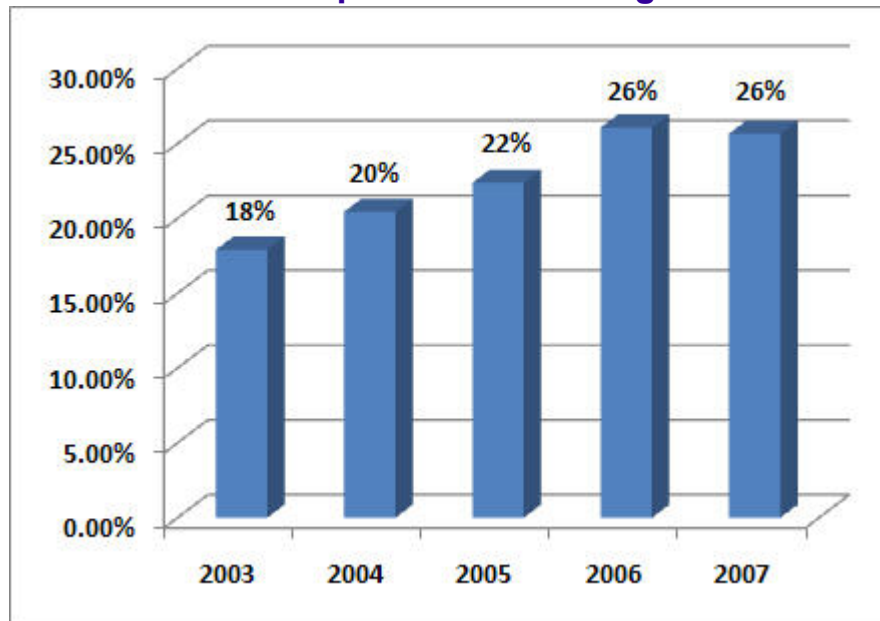

The percentage of Agriculture faculty who are non-U.S. citizens has increased by over 50% between 2003 and 2007. Also, non-U.S. citizens account for 25% of new faculty hires in Agriculture at the Assistant Professor rank, an increase of 40% since 2003. This is due in no small part to the high percentage (33-42%) of non-U.S. citizens receiving PhDs in Agriculture, Agriculture Operations, and Related Sciences. The charts below are derived from all the institutions reporting student and faculty surveys in FAEIS.
